Dr. Farrelly started off the evening by congratulating two West Babylon Seniors, Eric Donohue and Emerson Schaefer, who competed at the annual DECA International Career Development Conference in Atlanta, Georgia, on April 21 through April 24. Both Eric and Emerson qualified to compete after placing as finalists at last month's NYS DECA Conference. Eric was a medalist in his competition and was recognized at the Mercedes-Benz Stadium, in Atlanta, at this morning's achievement awards session. Dr. Farrelly said Eric has truly made West Babylon proud and his accolades continue to pour in as he is the 2018 Valedictorian. Joe Ronzetti has been selected as the 2018 Salutatorian. Congratulations to them and to their families!

This week is Administrative Professionals Week. Dr. Farrelly said on behalf of the Board of Education and administration, she wanted to thank all of our office administrative professionals who support our students, staff, faculty, parents and community members. Dr. Farrelly shared a special thank you to our administrative wing team - Barbara Burrows, Jane Chiappone, Vicky Bruckner, Marie Holm, Jennifer DeMaria, Laura Brehm, Sue Curley and Gaby Jordan!!

Dr. Farrelly gave kudos to all of our students involved in raising awareness for autism this month. She said many students, staff and faculty members held fundraisers. In addition, many have participated in wonderful events such as SEPTA's Paint Night last week. SHS "Eagles Eyes" students have also participated or hosted many events recently including members playing board games with students. We are so very proud of their work.

As a reminder, Dr. Farrelly encouraged all to execute their right to vote for the school district budget and trustee election. She asked all to review the specific budget information on the agenda and on the website as well.

On tonight's agenda, under the "Board of Education" section, there are two resolutions reflecting title changes for Mrs. Michele Psarakis and Mr. Scott Payne. The title of "Executive Director" will be changed to "Assistant Superintendent" effective tomorrow April 25th. Dr. Farrelly said the title change is appropriate for the job descriptions. The prior administrators, Mr. Cacciola, Dr. Palma, Mr. Flower, Mr. Rizzo and Dr. Farrelly, held the Assistant Superintendent title. The responsibilities of these two positions have increased, not decreased. The change in title will be reflected in district policies, as well as in the two individuals' contracts and forwarded to TRS. Other than the specific title change, there are no other proposed contract changes.

On April 30th, Mr. Payne will be hosting a follow-up parent workshop on the K-5 elementary schedule. His office sent information to the buildings which will be forwarded to parents.

Blue & Gold is here!! Performances will be held on Thursday, April 26th, Friday, April 27th and Saturday, April 28th. We are all looking forward to the performances. Dr. Farrelly is planning on attending Thursday night. The trustees will also be attending over the 3 nights of performances to support the students and staff.

Mrs. Psarakis attended a New York Schools Insurance Reciprocal ("NYSIR") conference and provided the trustees and administrators with booklets titled "Safer Schools: Preparing For and Dealing With Armed Intruders". Dr. Farrelly said, after reviewing the material, if the trustees have any questions, a NYSIR representative will meet with the Board. Mrs. Psarakis would be able to coordinate.

3. REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT AND/OR EDUCATIONAL PRESENTATION

Information: A. 2018-2019 Budget Information: Dr. Yiendhy Farrelly, Superintendent of Schools

Please take note of the 2018-2019 Budget Dates in this section of the agenda. Tonight, the 2018-2019 WS BOCES Budget Vote and Trustee Election will take place. Our district Budget Hearing is scheduled for May 1st at 6:00 PM in the Board Room-Administration Building. The 2018-2019 West Babylon School District Budget Vote and Trustee Election will be held on May 15, 2018 from 7:00 AM to 9:00 PM. Our two voting sites are the Administration Building and Santapogue School.

Information: B. New York State Education Department School Calendar Changes: Dr. Yiendhy Farrelly, Superintendent of Schools

Dr. Farrelly's PowerPoint presentation was titled "Overview of Commissioner's Regulations Re: School Calendar". She reviewed the 2017-2018 school year (Current NYS Regulations) which includes that school districts must provide 180 days of instruction. Full Day Kindergarten - 6th grade: 5 hours of instruction/day (minimum) and Grades 7-12: 5.5 hours of instruction/day (minimum). In the 17-18 school year calendar, we have 182 days as follows: 3 Superintendent's conference days; 1 WBTA conference day; 1 snow conference day; 1 parent/teacher conference day plus 176 instructional days which equals 182. Since we can only count 4 conference days, each instructional day must be full day (or contractual allowance) in order to reach 180 days: 4 Superintendent's/WBTA/Parent Teacher Conference Days plus 176 instructional days (FULL days or contractual language) which equals 180 days. As discussed at the last Board meeting, we will have to change the end of year dismissal schedule at the elementary buildings and the JHS to reflect this from this school year on.

During the 2018-2019 school year (New Regulations) - annual hours must still be provided over 180 school days pursuant to Education Law 3604. The new regulations replace the Daily Minimum Hours requirement with the following Annual Aggregate Minimum Hours requirement: 450 Hours for Half-Day Kindergarten, 900 Hours for Grades K-6, and 990 Hours for Grades 7-12. Dr. Farrelly explained in detail the impact these new regulations have on the school day/school year. Relating to state aid implications - for each day below the 180 day requirement, a district loses 1/180th of its Foundation Aid allocation the following year (approx. $131,000). Districts that are above the daily minimum will now have those extra instructional hours count. Board President Lucy Campasano raised questions relating to regents days as well as the loss of professional development time. Dr. Farrelly said all districts are dealing with these issues and are sharing/providing feedback. Different local school districts may have a different total number of days based on their union contract language. Dr. Farrelly said the 18-19 School District Calendar will be revised at the next Board meeting. The "new" 18-19 school calendar will reflect one less superintendent's conference day. Other minor changes during the day's schedule will be communicated after the full administration team has had an opportunity to meet and explore options. Dr. Farrelly's presentation will be posted to the district website.
